

The new album by local band Go To Blazes love Lust & Trouble (Sky Ranch) is quite simply one hell of an album. Singer Ed Warren has never sounded better (though he could be a little up in the mix) and Tom Heyman steals every song with real rock 'n' roll guitar. It reminds me of the Stones when they were great and by great I mean 1965. They do a great job of rocking up Gordon Lightfoot's "For Lovin' Me," proving a good song is timeless, cover someone named Robert O. Smith with a great "Chainball," as well as Johnny Paycheck's "Hating You," and include my favorite Blazes original "Bad Cup of Coffee." It's one of the best albums by any Philly band. They make their first Cabaret appearance in ages Tuesday. Consider it a chance to hear them with really good sound, and the rest of the line-up ain't bad either and neither is the price.

Go To Blazes with Kenn Kweder, The Fabulous Fondas and Brother Eye: Tues., Feb. 4th at 9 p.m. at the Chestnut Cabaret, 38th and Chestnut Sts., $3, 382-1201.
